

Feedback

Violates the rules that no entry should exceed the bounds of good taste

The piece in the judges opinion:

It denounces a particular community, which is not in good taste According to the rules of the competition.

Identifying a particular community and saying that they are wrong

The piece was defamatory

The NCF is an inclusive organization and this piece does not support that point of view

Emotion behind the delivery of the piece was aggressive

They were concerned that we are using children to promote discrimination.